

WELCOME TO THE FAMILY

GRAB SOME POPCORN, THIS IS GOING TO GET GOOD.

In the summer of 2008, 6 beautiful minds came together and decided to make difference. Fueled by passion and the desire to change lives everywhere, a small company opened its doors to every corner of the Earth for the very first time. Within a few short years, this small company became one of the fastest growing and most admired Network Marketing companies in the world.

Say hello to ORGANO™. More than just a company, it's a movement committed to "bringing the treasures of the Earth to the people of the world."

But that's not what makes them special – it's how OG™ became one of the most admired and respected companies in the global market. That is what makes this story so unique. Accomplished through unparalleled leadership, a dedicated international team, and of course Ganoderma – this planet's most sought after mushroom.

Ganoderma lucidum is the company's biggest differentiator. OG™ has become synonymous with the revered herb and uses it in across their expansive product line – from coffee to tea, supplements to bodycare. The Chinese name for Ganoderma – Lingzhi – means "spiritual potency," while the Japanese name, Reishi, can be translated as the "King of Herbs". At ORGANO™ they source only the finest quality Ganoderma grown undisturbed high in the Wuyi Mountains of China ready to make a dramatic difference in people's daily lives in every corner of the Earth.

A GENUINE FOUNDATION

What makes a great leader? As there is long list of qualities to choose from, ORGANO™ instinctively chooses leaders that stand out from the norm. Leaders regarded as the most respected and esteemed individuals in all of Network Marketing. It's their leaders who have been at the forefront of this movement to change lives and it's their leaders that continue to cultivate a culture of success and prosperity to its distributors they call Family.

Starting with the Founder and CEO, Bernardo Chua started ORGANO™ already as a successful and respected businessman. It was his vision and genuine commitment to bring Ganoderma to all four corners of the earth. OG™ now operates in over 50 countries, 6 continents, impacting hundreds of thousands of people and families to change their lives for the better.

In addition, the Co-Founder and Global Master Distributor, Shane Morand, is widely believed to have sold more Ganoderma-infused products than anyone else in the world. His ability to motivate, inspire, and develop leaders all over the world has been a blueprint for many of Top Distributors in OG™ and has been the catalyst to the company's rapid growth.

Never satisfied with enough and a real desire to continually improve, Holton Buggs joined the executive team. His in-depth knowledge of Network Marketing was a driving force behind the wide variety of ORGANO™ products that are now available worldwide. Holton's extensive Network Marketing experience has enabled OG Distributors on every continent to build successful businesses and reach new levels of prosperity and balance.

Yet this OG™ executive team continues to grow in epic proportions in order to meet the demands of today's competitive market. Now it isn't just about strong dedicated leadership and Ganoderma lucidum. There's another vital component that has helped ORGANO™ become a global phenomenon in six different continents.

A dedicated and committed global team is like water in the desert. Whether you are based where the Global Headquarters in Richmond, British Columbia are or you're part of the growing team stationed in Malaysia, you are an integral part of the company's growing success. Hundreds of thousands of Independent Distributors across the globe represent ORGANO™ and they count on the global OG Team to support them with every essential ingredient to succeed. OG™ takes great pride in this and they are committed to making your life as an ORGANO™ Independent Distributor as easy and stress-free as possible.

So that's the quick version – the story is even better when you play your favorite movie score while reading this. That's how excited they get when anyone decides to join the family.

WELCOME HOME. NOW BUCKLE UP AND GET READY TO EXPERIENCE AN AMAZING LIFE™.
